Advertisement

Platform: DexSnake | Founder: Shadmehr Daniyali

DexSnake advertising is designed to connect relevant Web3 projects and ecosystem partners with an audience interested in decentralized markets.

Advertising with DexSnake

DexSnake may provide selected opportunities for blockchain projects, Web3 products and ecosystem partners to reach users through clearly presented promotional placements.

Eligible Campaigns

Advertising opportunities may include ecosystem campaigns, product visibility, project promotions and other relevant Web3 initiatives, subject to DexSnake review and applicable requirements.

Review Process

DexSnake may review proposed advertisements for relevance, accuracy, quality, security concerns and consistency with the platform. Acceptance of an advertisement does not constitute investment endorsement of the advertised asset or project.

Transparency

Paid or sponsored promotional content should be identified where appropriate so users can distinguish advertising from ordinary platform information.

Restricted Content

DexSnake may reject campaigns involving deceptive claims, impersonation, malicious software, fraudulent activity, misleading token information or other content considered unsafe or inappropriate.

Campaign Information

Placement, format, duration and commercial terms may vary by campaign and should be agreed before publication.
