1. About This Policy

This Cookie Policy explains how DexSnake may use cookies, local storage and similar technologies on its website and platform.

2. Finnish and EU Framework

Cookie and terminal-device technologies are used subject to applicable Finnish electronic-communications rules and European Union data-protection requirements.

3. Necessary Technologies

DexSnake may use technologies necessary to provide functionality explicitly requested by users, maintain security, preserve sessions or support essential platform operations.

4. Preference Technologies

Preference storage may remember settings such as language, theme, selected blockchain network or interface configuration.

5. Analytics

DexSnake may use analytics technologies to understand platform performance and usage. Where consent is legally required, non-essential analytics technologies should remain disabled until valid consent is provided.

6. Third-Party Technologies

Third-party infrastructure or analytics providers may use their own technologies where integrated into DexSnake. Their use must respect the applicable consent state and relevant legal requirements.

7. Consent and Choice

Where consent is required, users should receive clear information and a genuine choice concerning non-essential cookies. Consent should be freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous.

8. Withdrawal of Consent

Users should be able to change cookie preferences or withdraw consent for non-essential technologies as easily as consent was given.

9. Browser Controls

Cookies can also be viewed, blocked or deleted through browser settings. Disabling technologies necessary for requested functionality may affect how parts of DexSnake operate.

10. Retention

Cookie and similar technology retention periods should be proportionate to their purposes. Session technologies may expire when a session ends, while persistent technologies may remain for a defined period.

11. Policy Changes

This Cookie Policy may be updated when DexSnake changes technologies, providers, purposes or applicable legal requirements.

12. Contact

Questions about cookies or privacy can be sent to maildexsnake@gmail.com.

This policy is intended to reflect generally applicable Finnish and European Union requirements relevant to the DexSnake platform. The application of specific financial, crypto-asset, consumer, privacy or other regulatory requirements depends on the services actually provided.
